

The GCV Symposium Networking App, powered by Brella, is now live!

Log in now and register your interests to optimize your networking opportunities. If pitching companies are busy, you can schedule face-to-face meetings with them via the app, chat with other delegates before the event, and take advantage of AI powered match-making suggestions.

Joining Instructions:

- Register for the networking app - <https://next.brella.io/join/GCVS23>.
- Create your account, choose your interests and finalize your profile
- Make sure you have networking switched on to enable interactions with other attendees
- Sign in to see who is attending the GCV Symposium, plan your schedule in advance and request 1-to-1 meetings with the right connections
- We recommend displaying your email in your profile and including your LinkedIn account so that your new connections can get in touch after the event

If you are already on Brella you can use the joining code: GCVS23

Instructions on how to use Brella can also be found here.

Program & Partners

Be sure to check out our Partners/Portfolio tab where you can find out more about the 2023 event partners and the unique startups joining us.

Only registrants that elect to use the Symposium app (powered by Brella) will be visible on the app attendee listing.
